Mrs. Susan Lewton, of Malvern O.

considerable portion of the time I was so bad I could scarcely walk. My ankle was so swollen a friend of the time, I could scarcely sit on my shoe. My limbs were numb and I suffered continually. I tried a great many remedies, but was unable to get relief, until I tried

BRIDGEPORT

Graded School There Closes the Term With Appropriate Exercises—Term Was Highly Successful in Every Respect.

Bridgeport, W. Va., April 9.—The commencement exercises of the Bridgeport graded school at the M. P. church here last night were highly entertaining to all being fortunate enough to be present. The recitation of Miss Lang, entitled "The Octoroon," was splendidly given, and the essays of the Misses Stout were masterful and showed bright minds rightly trained. The past term of school has been one of the most successful ever held in our town. Last night's exercises were a fitting end for such a successful term of school. Prof.
Barnett and his able assistants, Misses Willis, Morris and Lang, are to be commended for their good work.

Mrs. J. G. Lawson returned yesterday from Grafton.

Mrs. D. A. Reed, of Clarksburg, was in our city yesterday.

E. D. Harris, of the South Penn Oil Company, spent a few hours with his family here yesterday.

Our public school closed last night with three "sweet girl graduates." Misses Hattie Lang, Bernice and Nellie Stout.

Captain J. H. Hurry returned yesterday from Chicago where he purchased two car loads of cattle, which he will take to his Tucker county farm and fatten for market.

Miss Stella Bartlett is spending a few days here the guest of the Misses Lawson.

W. E. Frum, of Simpson Creek, was in our city yesterday.

E. J. Whitehill was at Grafton yesterday.

M. H. Brown is spending a few days with his daughter, Mrs. E. D. Silcott, at Cairo, W. Va.

Mrs. J. N. Wilkinson is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

The Bridgeport Natural Gas & Oil Company are preparing to drill another well. They have procured the territory and will seek more gas with which to supply the town and factories.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured.

"I have been subject to sciatic rheumatism for years," says E. H. Waldron, of Wilton Junction, Iowa. "My joints were stiff and gave me much pain and discomfort. My joints would crack when I straightened up. I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and have been thoroughly cured. Have not had a pain or ache from the old trouble for many months.
It is certainly a most wonderful liniment.
For sale by G. C. Stone, druggist."

COMING OF "OTHELLO"

For the first time in the history of the American stage a continuous tour has fallen upon Mr. Harry Leighton, of late years identified with the Frohman successes, "The Prisoner of Zenda," "Rupert of Hentzau," etc., and who formerly won distinction through his association with Mojeska Marie Wainwright, Louis-James and the late Thomas Keene, in Shakespearean work.

By confining his efforts to "Othello" solely, Mr. Leighton has been enabled to secure an especially strong cast of players successfully played all season of Shakespeare's immortal tragedy, "Othello." This role is considered to be the most difficult to portray, taxing the powers of the actor to an unusual degree. Booth, Barrett, Forrest, McCulough and Salvini have played "Othello," but always in repertoire. None of them ever attempted it as the only vehicle of a protracted tour. This distinction has been adapted for this powerful drama.

The scenic and costume effects are superb. The season altogether has been so successful, both artistically and financially that a special spring tour is announced, and the date of Tuesday, April 19th, as being held in the hope that sufficient local interest may be manifested to warrant the company in visiting us for one performance.

The production is under the managerial guidance of Ernest Shipman, of the New York Theatre, who has sent us artistic plays in the past. His spring tour of Alberta Gallatin and company, last season, being one of the delights of the year.

How to Break Up a Cold.

Tar. It stops the cough, heals and strengthens the lungs, and is safe and for coughs, colds and lung trouble. I know that it has cured consumption in the first stages."—Sold by Stone and Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows:
"I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed at F. G. Bland's drug store.
